

The Red Sea International Film Festival To Showcase Exciting New Films

Exclusive Tajreeb screenings debut online this month

Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. 18 November 2020

The Red Sea International Film Festival is excited to announce digital screenings of its Tajreeb program. Originally chosen for the inaugural Red Sea Film Festival, Tajreeb aims to showcase the talent pool emerging in new Saudi cinema.

Tajreeb is punk at its core; freeing filmmakers from any sense of constraint, allowing creatives the opportunity to do anything imaginable from behind the lens of the camera. Filmmakers accepted into the program find themselves surrounded by like-minded advocates of their craft and passions. Hailing from different regions of SAUDI ARABIA, these films are of different genres and lengths.

The 11 selected films will screen online over the course of 2 weeks, running from the 18–30 November on the Red Sea Film Festival's YouTube channel. Each film will be available for one week.

The Tajreeb films will appear every other day from the 18th until the 30th of November.

The full schedule is detailed below:

Wednesday 18th at 5 p.m. - Shame Directed By Abdulla AlBin Hamdha

Wednesday 18th at 9 p.m. - A Diy Of A Dream 101 Directed By Qamar Abdulmalik

Saturday 21st at 5 p.m. - Nonself Portrait Directed By Asad Badawi

Saturday 21st at 9 p.m. - Extraction Of Lunar Directed By Lulua Al Dehaiemi

Monday 23rd at 5 p.m. - The Time Has Come Directed By Ayman Al Ali

Monday 23rd at 9 p.m. - Algari Directed By Ahmed AlHasawi

Wednesday 25th at 5 p.m. - Dissonance Directed By Moodi AlZamil

Wednesday 25th at 9 p.m. - A Breath Directed By Razan Alsagheer

Saturday 28th at 5 p.m. - Remember Me Directed By Mohammed Hammad

Saturday 28th at 9 p.m. - Color Of Sunset Directed By Haidar Daoud

Monday 30th at 5 p.m. - The Sleep Sun Station Directed By Anhar Salem

All times are in Arabian Standard Time (AST).

To view the Tajreeb screenings, visit <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCLPErMYhL4ikeIG982A9VHw>

The Red Sea International Film Festival is headquartered in Old Town Jeddah, a historic district in the Kingdom's Western region. The Red Sea International Film Festival is a pivotal part of the growing worldwide interest in films made by Arab filmmakers. Through their various programs, they provide crucial funding, guidance, and visibility to the next generation of Saudi filmmakers.

To learn more about the Red Sea International Film Festival, connect via @RedSeaFilm on Instagram and Twitter, or visit redseafilmfest.com

Media Contact

Rana Zedan, Red Sea International Film Festival PR Coordinator
media@redseafilmfest.com